At Home: OAC In Wyoming

BACK IN 1991, our OAC Switzerland staff man, Kurt Schafli, came to the USA and opened up our work in Wyoming. Kurt takes advantage of many unique opportunities to share Christ in that part of the country. Conducting meetings with adults, children and teens on the Wind River Reservation and in surrounding areas have provided great opportunities to minister through the years. Kurt conducts regular ministry at Pow-Wow gatherings, in local prison facilities, at local parks, in local churches and recently showing “The Privileged Planet” movie as preparation for the Eclipse event that took place. Another unique opportunity happened at the Riverwalk gathering as good conversations ensued with Mormons. Kurt was glad to engage them in some great conversations about the reliability of the Bible and the reality of God’s love in a world of suffering. Kurt was able to elaborate on the suffering Christ endured on the cross where His redemptive work took place and how that applies to us in these days, not based on our good works. During September and October, Kurt and his wife are ministering in Europe and Israel.

Overseas: OAC In Russia

OUR OAC RUSSIA DIRECTOR, Mikhael Tsvirinko (we call him Misha), receives great joy when equipping local churches to proclaim the Good News in his country. He reports that many churches, old and new, as well as large and small, are going through the personal evangelism study he leads. He mentions a church in the village of Varenikovskaya where there are very few young people and most members are between the ages of 50-70. Misha is amazed at how successful the personal evangelism class went in that location and was thrilled to see the great desire of the participants to engage in witnessing and the new passion God gave to them for proclaiming the Good News to the unsaved around them.

OAC/USA is trusting the Lord to use this ministry to impact 25 cities in America with the Gospel through open-air evangelism and other ministry by means of strategic establishment of branch ministries by the year 2025.
